

Philosophy - Happiness in a glass

Wine is much more than a drink to enjoy, wine is a cultural asset and an expression of the respective region! Wine gives us great, unforgettable moments together with fine food and dear people.

Each IGNIV is characterised by the individual handwriting of the respective sommelier. We would like to present you with new discoveries as well as old and traditional vintners and their passion. Personally, it is very close to my heart to bring you closer to the wonderful variety and quality of the wines around Lake Zurich.

I myself am a passionate champagne drinker. Champagne is simply something beautiful: It keeps you fresh, invigorates you, encourages you to dream and always puts you in a good mood. It is drunk on festive occasions, sometimes when saying goodbye, after a long reunion or simply because you want to treat yourself to something good. It is not for nothing that it is called "the wine of happiness". Personally, I prefer a bottle of champagne to a white or red wine any time, even with our Sharing-Experience it fits wonderfully. It is always exciting to see how a champagne harmonises with the variety of our different dishes and tastes. You will find over 140 different champagnes from more than 50 champagne houses and winemakers on our wine list.

Now I welcome you warmly to IGNIV and wish you many enjoyable moments. I will be happy to assist you with recommendations. I am very much looking forward to oenological discussions and would like to learn which noble drop is your personal favourite - because your personal taste is the best!

Montagne de Reims J. LASSALLE, CHIGNY – LES – ROSES
Rosé Réserve Grandes Années 1er Cru 24.50 CHF

Founded in 1942 by Jules Lassalle, the champagne house was taken over by his wife Olga and daughter Chantal after his death in 1982. Since 2006, granddaughter Angéline has also been part of the Champagne House team - so J. Lassalle is now run as a 3-generation women's business. The vineyards cover 16 hectares in various Grand Cru and Premier Cru communes in the Montagne de Reims. Here, manual labour is still the top priority, even the bottles are all still shaken by hand. The Rosé Réserve Grandes Année 1er Cru is a cuvée of 70% Pinot Noir, 15% Chardonnay, 15% Pinot Meunier and lies on the yeast for 3 years. 4% Coteaux Rouge is added to this champagne before the 2nd fermentation.

Vallée de la Marne DIDIER DUCOS, SAINT-MARTIN-D'ABLOIS
L'Ablutien 16.50 CHF

The Champagne House Didier Ducos was founded after the marriage of Yvone Ducos and Adrien Didier in 1946 in a small village near the Champagne capital Epernay. Now in its third generation, grandson Nicolas and his wife Clotilde are trying to combine modernity and tradition. All grapes grow in their own vineyard, the vines are between 3 and 54 years old. The cuvée L'Ablutien, consisting of 80% Pinot Meunier, is named after the inhabitants of the village Saint-Martin-D'Ablois, the Ablut winemakers.

Côte des Blancs PIERRE PÉTERS, LE MESNIL- SUR- OGER
Blanc de Blancs Extra Brut Grand Cru 25 CHF

The Pierre Péters Champagne House was founded in 1858 through the marriage of Gasper Péters, a native of Luxembourg, and his wife Doué from Le Mesnil. As one of the first winemakers, grandson Camille Péters began bottling and selling his own wines in 1919. His son Pierre Péters took over the house and the first vintage was marketed under his name. In the meantime, the 20-hectare champagne house is run by Rodolphe Péters in the sixth generation. This cuvée is made from 100% Chardonnay grapes and is aged on its lees for at least 36 months.

Côte des Bar C.H. PICONNET, NEUVILLE-SUR-SEINE
Blanc de Noir Brut Nature 2018 24 CHF

The C.H. Piconnet winery was founded in 2014 by Agathe and Clement Piconnet. Agathe is the cellar master and Clement takes care of everything in the vineyard - a well-coordinated and perfectly harmonising team. The winery is farmed organically, but they are already starting to convert to biodynamic viticulture and strengthen their vines with chamomile and other natural herbs. As a young winery, they marketed their first champagne in 2020. This champagne is 100% from the Pinot Noir grape and ages for 36 months.
